Fragmented Florals

With Kristine Ballard

Two days of colour play creations
5 & 6 June 2027
10am – 4pm
$260 BDAS Members $310 Non-members

Join expressive painter Kristine Ballard for a colour two days of expressive painting. Have fun creating your own expressive artwork in this two day ‘colourplay’ workshop. Focusing on colour skills and abstraction techniques with florals using acrylic paint

This workshop will be inspired by flowers. Contemporary painter Kristine Ballard, will introduce you to a modernist colour palette and show you how to add energy and build harmony in your work. She will offer you some easy ways on how to be more expressive in your creations and tips on how to learn to love the journey along the way. No two paintings will be the same!

DAY 1 : BREAK UP THE SHAPES

Work with a whole new colour palette. Learning to abstract and fragment shapes. Mix colours like the masters. Create a work on paper and a set of small studies before launching into your major artwork.

DAY 2 : BUILD UP THE BRIGHTNESS

Work into your major floral artwork building depth and radiant colour. Discover some tactics on what to keep and what to kill in your painting. Understand how to use tone and composition to super charge your artwork.
All skill levels welcome. Equipment list supplied.

Meet your tutor

Kristine Ballard is a Sydney-based exhibiting artist and experienced arts educator, known for her expressive use of paint and sumptuous colour. She specialises in contemporary painting and is the originator of her distinctive style, 'Fragmatism'.

Through her paintings, Kristine reimagines familiar subjects, celebrating the enchantment of the everyday and the wonder of the natural world. A self-confessed colour lover, her practice explores the transformative impact of colour, using fractured forms and expressive brushwork to create vibrant, unexpected worlds.

With international residencies in New York, Venice and France, and a career spanning exhibitions, prizes and collaborations, Kristine brings a wealth of artistic experience to her teaching.

Passionate about sharing her knowledge and enthusiasm, she encourages students to explore their own creative strengths, experiment with colour and expressive techniques, and discover the joy of individual growth through painting.

An active member of the arts community, Kristine regularly presents demonstrations and undertakes judging for art societies. She is a member of the Inner West Creatives Group and a Fellow and Councillor of the Royal Art Society of NSW.
