

The Sketchbook Habit

With Amanda McLean
2 Day sketchbooking Workshop

17 & 18 August 2024

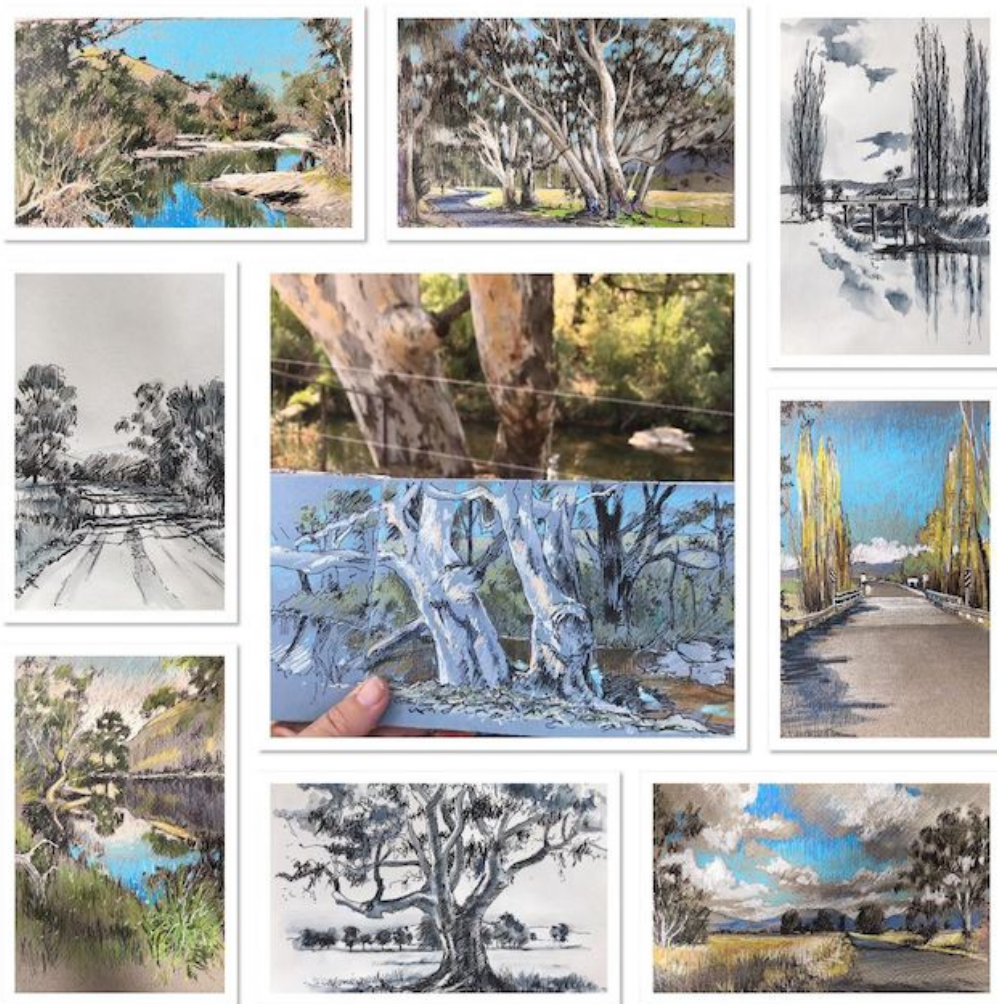

Workshop time: 9:30am – 4:30pm

$240 BDAS members $280 non-members

An exciting 2 Day workshop introducing the wonderful possibilities of sketchbooking. Sketching is the basic foundation for all artistic pursuits and a good habit to get into. All artists should keep a sketchbook. Whether you want to sketch Natural History and Nature, Landscape to Urban and Travel sketching, studies for larger work, start daily sketching or just improve your drawing skills, this workshop is a great way to begin. It will help fire up your creativity and inspire you.

We will touch on a variety of mediums and techniques to bring your sketchbook to life. This class will start with basic exercises and strategies from learning basic drawing techniques to tips on working quickly when time is limited with lots of 'how to's'. We will cover the basics of sketching using Pen and Ink, Shades of Grey and a variety of Mixed Media and Gouache, working on a variety of subjects from natural history, photographs and en Plein air. A sketchbook is included in the cost.
