Drawing & Portraiture

Take the anxiety out of Accurate Drawing

Studio 3 9am – 12pm

23 April – 2 July 11 week term Cost: $300

In this class we will work through the process of 'Accurate Seeing'. No more anxiety of feeling stuck, not 'seeing' what to do next.

This is key to drawing portraits successfully, no wonky eyes nor unwanted distortions. There are many levels of drawing and competence, and portraiture requires a high level of technique. As with all things, some individuals are a quick study, some take longer.

Never forget though: Desire is the number one factor, how long it takes - well it takes what it takes. The JOY comes when you get there. This ability 'to see' and draw accurately is applicable in all areas of Art.

24 April – 3 July 11 week term Cost: $300

In this class we will work through the challenges and Joy of Oil Painting. We will consider materials and various techniques and genres from the traditional to the modern.

Anything great that humans achieve, someone had to think of it first. We will consider ideas, some historical points of interest and how to make your painterly idea a reality and keep your passion alive, avoiding the inconsistency of 'come and go'. The steady journey achieves results.

Desire, is the number one factor. How long it takes - well, it takes what it takes. The JOY comes when you get there. This ability in seeing and drawing accurately is applicable to all areas of Art. I am committed to meet students at their level and assist them to grow.
